Calves	300
Hogs	3,000
Sheep	150

CATTLE—Quality was totally lacking in the cattle run at the yards today. Fresh grassers were all packers could find in the 750 head available and even these were scarce as compared to orders. Most of the sales ranged from $10.00 to $11.00. It was called a good steady market. Cow trading. A few sales where odd hand of steers carried the 8 mark were recorded. A fair sprinkling of stocker supply on hand and the time is opportune for country buyers to show their need for winter offerings.

Prices of the various grades of cattle are approximately as follows:

EPWORTH STAFF BACK SALARIES PAID BY DONOR

erty was not to go back to the company for individual purposes but to be used for a school of some other church.

Stormy Conference Session.

Rankin told of a stormy session of the annual conference of the M. E. church at Perry when the question of accepting the proposition of the development company came up. He sent for Judge Green, an attorney and a member of the M. E. church, to come to Perry to explain the proposition and to agree to the whole proposition to the satisfaction of the conference and the agreement was approved. Later, he said, he concluded that Judge Green was mistaken.

"We laymen depend upon you lawyers more than you lawyers depend upon us," he said. That remark brought laughter.

As to the board of trustees which accepted the proposition of the company and which managed the school, Mr. Rankin said: "It was the most harmonious body; the members acted in perfect sympathy and accord with one another and it was composed of honorable men."

Reversion Clause Reported.

According to a deposition of Rev. W. F. Wilson, minister in the M. E. church south and member of the board of trustees, he always understood the original agreement contained the reversion clause; that if the churches failed to carry out their part the property was to revert to the company, in trust. He said, too, that absence of a clear title retarded financial development of the institution.

The Deposition of Rev. Sam G. Thompson of the M. E. church south, who was president of the joint commission representing the two Methodist churches, was read. In his testimony he denied that J. B. Thoburn, the secretary, gave him the key to the tin box which contained the original deed to the churches. Thoburn said he placed the tin box in Clasen's vault and gave the only key to Thompson.

Ignorant of Key and Deed.

Thompson said he did not know what became of the key or deed. Testimony introduced yesterday developed that attorneys for the M. E. church south in this suit will be paid $50,000 for their services. They were employed by the annual conference at Mangum in 1911. The attorneys in the case are D. H. Linebaugh, brother of Rev. N. L. Linebaugh, presiding elder in the church; C. B. Stuart and A. C. Cruz. The conference also gave the attorneys a lien upon the church property to secure their fee, which means if the church wins the suit, the debts cannot be paid until after the $50,000 fee is paid.
